

A technical drawing of a shaft with two diameters. The shaft is oriented vertically. The upper section has a diameter of 438, and the lower section has a diameter of 409 i.L. The diameters are indicated by dimension lines with arrows pointing to the shaft's surface. The text is written vertically next to the dimension lines.

$\Phi 438$

$\Phi 409 \text{ i.L.}$